RELATIVE TO PHYSICAL EXAMINATION

THE columns of the Bonanza are devoted to news and fair play editorials. Every effort is put forth to guard against the publication of any matter that is not strictly accurate, but errors will creep in at the least expected moment. On what was deemed most excellent authority a story was printed relative to the examination of employees to make them eligible to insurance under the terms prescribed by the state industrial commission. Attention to the lack of authority, or an interrogation as to the source of the authority for this examination, was called in the following letter which was immediately referred to an attorney with request to look up the precedent for such action:

Tonopah, Nevada, August 5, 1915.

To the Editor of the Tonopah Bonanza: Dear Sir:—Will you kindly point out in the columns of your paper that section of the statutes of Nevada that gives an employer of labor the right to compel his employees to submit to a contemptible physical examination. Also the section of our state law that gives the Mine Operators' association the right to appoint a medical inspector.

Trusting to see this pertinent question and your answer in tomorrow's Bonanza, I am, yours very truly,

PAUL WHALEY.

President Tonopah Miners' Union No. 121, W. F. M.

The attorney reported as follows:

Section 32 of the compensation act, approved March 22, 1915, reads: "Any workman entitled to receive compensation under this act is required, if requested by the commission, to submit himself for medical examination at a time and from time to time at a place reasonably convenient for the workman, and as may be provided by the rules of the commission."

The Bonanza is of the opinion that this section really refers to examination after the injury has been sustained and not as a preliminary to application for relief under the act. Perhaps the rules of the commission may bear more directly upon this point. The Bonanza has thus far been unable to secure a copy of these rules and if any interested reader has such a copy, this paper would be grateful to have the use of it in order to further investigate the matter.

The history of the controversy relative to examination prior to receiving compensation, or rather antedating the injury itself, includes a case in Churchill county, so the Bonanza is informed, where an engineer was found lying unconscious in the hoist room. His clutches were out, so that his sudden attack of heart failure could not imperil human life, but the danger that exists from the employment of men liable to heart failure is said to have impelled the management to insist that employees submit to an examination before they go to the job, in order to protect those who work with them. A Tonopah miner tells the Bonanza that this rule was adopted by other companies and was largely for the purpose of eliminating workmen afflicted with contagious and infectious disease, so that in ill ventilated mines, where the danger of communicating disease is greater than it is in the open air, there will be less possibility of healthy workmen becoming infected.

Inasmuch as the employing companies do not pay the compensation, but it is issued from the funds of the state itself, such a ruling on the part of employers does not seem possible of construction as a selfish measure, but one intended solely for the benefit of the workman himself.

The question is one that may be viewed from many angles and the Bonanza admits its lack of knowledge as to the complicated situation, but merely publishes Mr. Whaley's letter, the section that seems to most nearly bear upon the case, and the comment thereon, in order to evidence that it possesses the spirit of fair play and has no bias in the matter.

SPEAK UP, JUDGE McCARRAN

IT IS to be presumed that when Judge McCarran returns from his fence building trip he will reply to the latest allegation by the Bonanza, emphasizing its previous conclusion that a justice of the Supreme Court is ineligible to election to any office "other than a judicial one" during the "term for which he was elected."

It is also presumed that he will reply directly to the allegation, which is based upon the Constitution of the State, instead of seeking refuge behind decisions and statutes, which the Bonanza has not yet invoked to substantiate its contention. Judge McCarran is hereby notified that his silence in the matter, which is evidence that he has no defense, will avail him nothing, as the Bonanza never undertakes any course without pursuing it to its furthestmost bounds.

FUN IS NEARLY OVER

SOMEHOW one cannot help feeling that there is going to be a headache after the Reno races. The fun is fast and furious while it lasts. There has been considerable shooting and carving. Mothers have waited up late for their daughters. Husbands and wives have given perforated explanations. The boys have gone home with confusion in their minds as to which was the gas jet and which the clothes closet. Little children have lost their Sunday school contributions feeding the pari mutuels and pop has overplayed himself and lost his job, while the police judge has been busier than a nailer. It has been a lovely orgie and the Business Men's league has proven

TONOPAH TARVIA

(Communicated)

There's tarvia on our street,
 So there's tarvia on our feet,
 And there's tarvia in the store
 That makes the old man roar.

There's tarvia in our clothes
 So there's tarvia 'tween our toes
 And there's tarvia on the floor
 That makes dear mother sore.

There's tarvia everywhere,
 So there's tarvia in the air,
 And there's tarvia in my room
 That defies efforts with a broom.

There's tarvia in my hair
 From the tarvia in the air,
 There's tarvia on the sheet
 From the tarvia off my feet

And the tarvia on my feet
 Is the tarvia from the street;
 That's the tarvia on the floor
 And caused this tarvia roar.

Dr. Aked is reported to disapprove of Sunday. That may not mean Billy, but may be due to the fact that he has to work on that day.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The following prices f. o. b. Detroit, effective August 2, 1915:

Ford Runabout.....	$390.00
Ford Touring Car.....	440.00
Ford Town Car.....	640.00

No speedometer included in this year's equipment, otherwise cars fully equipped.

There can be no assurance given against an advance in these prices at any time. We guarantee, however, that there will be no reduction in these prices prior to August 1, 1916.

Profit-Sharing with Retail Buyers

On August 1, 1914, we made the announcement that if we could make and sell at retail 300,000 Ford cars between Aug. 1, 1914, and Aug. 1, 1915, we would share profits with retail purchasers to the extent of from $40 to $60 on each car.

We have sold over 300,000 Ford cars in the time specified, and profit-sharing checks of $50 each will be distributed as rapidly as possible after August 15, 1915. Retail purchasers who have not yet mailed us their profit-sharing coupons, properly endorsed, should do so without delay.

Our plan to profit-share with retail purchasers of Ford cars during 1914-15 has been most successful. We thoroughly believe in it, but, realizing the uncertainty of conditions generally makes it advisable to defer any announcement of future profit-sharing until a later date.

We are, however, confident of our inability to reduce costs for several months, and therefore can offer no profit-sharing for cars delivered during August, September and October, 1915.

COMMUNICATED

Editor Bonanza:—As I intimated once before to you, your own vivacious journal and New York Times are about the only papers that I read with any degree of regularity, hence your interesting editorial of the 28th ultimo, under the caption "A Title Difficult to Gain and Maintain," has been read with interest.

You are absolutely right in your major conclusions as to the futility of fortifying Guam, Honolulu and Manila. The latter is a source of military weakness rather than strength, but the two former should be heavily fortified and equipped with dry docks of the largest size together with completely outfitted machine shops capable of repairing quickly and well any injuries to our fleet units in case the latter be engaged in action in Pacific waters.

As mere fortified military outposts Guam and Honolulu are valueless; as strong naval bases they are vital factors in the defense of not only our outlying island and mainland possessions, but of our Pacific coast states.

and the Panama canal.

As an army fights on "its belly," so a fleet fights on its coal and its repair shops. Given a strong fleet well balanced as to material and well manned as to a personnel with the "habit of the sea," back them up with adequate equipment, armament and garrisons at Guam and Pearl Harbor and the Pacific Coast and the Panama canal will be reasonably safe.

However, I fear that it is idle to expect any such consummation until the American people cease to think of themselves as a nation in terms of purely local interests and politics, and awaken to the true fact that this is one of the greatest in the world's family of nations, and as such have a definite foreign policy in which every man, woman and child in this country should ponder upon, assist in formulating, and in the final issue make it their very own, to be maintained at all hazards.

Believe me to be, with very kind regards and congratulations upon your excellent military judgment,

MILITARY MAN.
